The Intelligent Transportation Society of Virginia

The Intelligent Transportation Society of Virginia is a statewide non-profit association established in 1994 to enhance the quality of life in the Commonwealth through the use of advanced transportation technologies.

The Society advances cooperation between the Commonwealth's forward-looking state, county, and municipal agencies and the growing community of companies whose products and services improve mobility, safety, and energy conservation.

Members of ITS Virginia comprise a network of professionals from private industry, universities, and public agencies who live on the cutting edge of innovation in surface transportation.
